Dear Thomas,

Thank you for your recent gift of $306.61, to the Arts for Learning annual fund as part of your "Sharing the Plate" Program! Please thank the members of your congregation and let them know that their donations provide opportunities for Indiana youth to engage in creative learning experiences with professional artists.

Your support allows us to reach students of all learning styles, offering youth the freedom and confidence to creatively explore academic and life skills. This past year, Arts for Learning served more than 40,000 youth statewide, offering in-person and virtual arts in education programs. With your help, we will continue to remain flexible and focused on providing rich arts experiences.

Thank you again for your generosity. Because of you, we are fulfilling our mission of empowering youth and expanding their learning through creative arts experiences.

Sincerely,

Anya Aslanova
President
